Evacuation Order Rescinded

September 6, 2019

6:30 p.m.

Carteret County, NC – At noon on September 4, 2019 due to the potential impact of Hurricane Dorian to Carteret County, a mandatory evacuation was issued from North River to South River and Down East Communities from East Carteret Corner. The evacuation order also included the evacuation of County residents who live in manufactured homes such as park models, manufactured homes or recreational vehicles.

Hurricane Dorian impacted some areas of the County; however, Carteret County has most essential services restored and is able to support re-entry of these previously restricted areas.

The evacuation order is rescinded effective 6:30 p.m. on Friday, September 6, 2019.
